Foreword

The White Nationalist Manual for White Nationalist Homelands has been compiled and published to provide a comprehensive education for free thinking individuals who interested in learning, promoting, and adhering to the racial political ideologies collectively referred to as "White Nationalism." The ideological statements contained within this manual have been derived from the original White Nationalist Position Statements and expanded upon that would become this completed publication. The White Nationalist Position Statements were first published by Andy Robertson (pseudonym John Joy Tree) on the online discussion platform Stormfront.org and serve as the initial framework for White Nationalists to actively secure the existence of white people and a future for white children within the boundaries of the laws in their respectively locales. The White Nationalist Manual for White Nationalist Homelands aim to promote and facilitate the establishment and maintenance of diasporas for pro-white individuals that are designed to evolve into pro-White Nationalist Homelands for pro-White minded White people who are genetically made up of entirely European descent. These White Nationalist diasporas endeavours are to be pursued in a and professional manner and through any peaceful, constructive, and legal means that are available to them. The ability to actively achieve self-determination, self-preservation, self-sustainment, and self-expression are fundamental human rights that are applicable to all individual people, collective families, and racial groups; however, whenever White people that identify as White Nationalists advocate and implement these human rights for themselves, they directly face overwhelming opposition from self-interested third parties and governments that advocate multiculturalism and multiracialism. These entities actively seek to prevent White people from choosing to residing in diasporas that consist exclusively of White people who identify as White Nationalists. Conversely, these same opponents do not contest the application of self-determination, self-preservation, self-sustainment, and self-expression for individuals or groups who are not ancestrally of wholly White European descent.

White Nationalism, as an ideology, does not encompass, endorse, promote, support, or implement any policies advocating illegal activities or violence against any individuals, including those of different racial backgrounds, political beliefs, cultural practices, sexual orientations, or religious affiliations. Assertions and claims that White Nationalist ideology promotes illegal activities and/or violence in the pursuit of its objectives are completely unfounded, as is shown and demonstrated within this manual known as the White Nationalist Manual for White Nationalist Homelands. The governments of sovereign nations, political parties, religious organizations, fraternal groups, and the mass media institutions around the world that are intentionally responsible for orchestrating, producing, promoting, and disseminating misinformation regarding White Nationalism and White Nationalists. The intentional dissemination of misinformation is for self-serving purposes such as maintaining complete control over White populations as that these controlling bodies can maximise their own profiteering from White populations at the expense of the future generations of those same White populations. White Nationalists are individuals of European descent who, through their voluntary actions and public declarations, have politically committed themselves to the self-determination, preservation, sustainability, and self-expression of White people as a distinct and reproductively isolated group, while advocating for peace and the well-being of all humanity. Any individual or organization that promotes illegal activities or violence in the name of White Nationalism to achieve the goals of White Nationalism does not accurately represent White Nationalist policies.

The necessity for a White Nationalist Constitution has been recognized by White Nationalists due to the historical absence of such a framework. The United States Constitution is often asserted to have been originally designed to uphold the United State of America as a White Nationalist Homeland; however, it is crucial to observe that the United States Constitution does not qualify as a White Nationalist Constitution, and because of this, the White population within the United States of America is in rapid decline. The same can be observed in all land spaces that are traditionally considered to be White Homelands. If the United States Constitution was indeed a White Nationalist Constitution, the current demographic landscape of the United States would not have been constitutionally feasible. The original Constitution of the United States does not allocate citizenship exclusively to White people and even prohibited the Federal Government of the United States from banning the importation of enslaved individuals for a period of 20 years after the Constitution of the United States had been ratified. Despite the ban, illegal importation of enslaved individuals continued, and the enslaved population of the United States rose from 1.2 million to nearly 4 million people over the next half-century. Most of these slaves were non-White people. This iteration of the Constitution of the United States allowed for the immigration of non-white individuals as both enslaved persons and indentured servants, contributing to the transformation of what was initially intended as a predominantly white nation into a multiracial society. Article Five of the United States Constitution subsequently facilitated the evolution of a modern, multiracial version of the Constitution and the current demographic composition of the United States. Article Five Article Five of the United States Constitution enabled the creation of Amendments that were imposed upon the Southern States following the American Civil War, during which these states were exercising their constitutional right to secede. This provision permitted the introduction of Amendments that ultimately allowed non-white individuals to attain citizenship in the United States. The First Amendment granted Jewish individuals the right to reside in the country, while the Second Amendment permitted them to bear arms. Consequently, the United States Constitution recognizes non-white citizenship and grants inherent rights associated with it. Article Five of the United States Constitution was instrumental in the establishment of both the First Amendment and Second Amendment, revealing a fundamental flaw within the United States Constitution that should be avoided in the formation of a White Nationalist Constitution. Such a constitution would not accommodate non-white citizenship, and this policy would remain unchangeable and immutable. Furthermore, a White Nationalist Constitution would endorse free amalgamation and the cessation of White Diasporas, as delineated in the White Nationalist Homeland Principles. It is asserted that no white individuals should be harmed in conflicts over cessation, in contrast to the experiences of the American Civil War. Additionally, a White Nationalist Constitution would regulate the ownership of firearms, ammunition, and explosives to be exclusively among White Nationalist citizens only, explicitly prohibiting any non-White individuals from possessing or owning firearms or ammunition or explosives, wholly or partially, within the territories of a White Nationalist diaspora, White Nationalist state, or White Nationalist Homeland.

Unfortunately, time cannot be reversed; however, White Nationalists possess the legal option to acquire private land property in land spaces that White Nationalists believe are the safest and the most prosperous for the future generations of their White children and their White families. This acquisition aims to establish communities exclusively for White Nationalists through a continual process of private property ownership within existing multiracial societies. The ideology and policies of the White Nationalist Constitution was written by White Nationalists for White Nationalists. By design, no amendments to a White Nationalist Constitution would be required after the ratification of a White Nationalist Constitution.

Article II.

THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH

Section 1.

[1] The executive Power shall be vested in a President of the United White Nationalist States of the planet Earth. He shall hold his Office during the Term of four Years, and, together with the Vice-President, chosen for the same Term, be elected, as follows. No person shall be elected to the office of the President more than twice, and no person who has held the office of President, or acted as President, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected President shall be elected to the office of President more than once. But this Article shall not apply to any person holding the office of President when this Article was proposed by Congress and shall not prevent any person who may be holding the office of President, or acting as President, during the term within which this Article becomes operative from holding the office of President or acting as President during the remainder of such term.

[2] Each State shall appoint, in such Manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, several Electors, equal to the whole Number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress: but no Senator or Representative, or Person holding an Office of Trust or Profit under the United White Nationalist States, shall be appointed an Elector.

[3] The Electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the Government of the United White Nationalist States, directed to the President of the Senate; -- the President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; -- The person having the greatest number of votes for President, shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as President, the House of Representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the President. But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if, at the time fixed for the beginning of the term of the President, the President elect shall have died, the Vice President elect shall become President. If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified. The person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President, shall be the Vice-President, if such number totals most of the whole number of Electors appointed, and if no person has a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the Senate shall choose the Vice-President; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of Senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of President shall be eligible to that of Vice-President of the United White Nationalist States.

[4] The Congress may determine the Time of choosing the Electors, and the Day on which they shall give their Votes, which Day shall be the same throughout the United White Nationalist States.

[5] No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United White Nationalist States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen years a Resident within the United White Nationalist States.

[6] In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

[7] The President shall, at stated Times, receive for his Services, a Compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the Period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that Period any other Emolument from the United White Nationalist States, or any of them.

[8] Before the President enters on the Execution of their Office, the President shall take the following Oath or Affirmation: - "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United White Nationalist States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United White Nationalist States."

[9] Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

[10] Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

[11] Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President. Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office.

Section 2.

[1] The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United White Nationalist States, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into the actual Service of the United White Nationalist States; he may require the Opinion in writing, of the principal Officer in each of the executive Departments, upon any subject relating to the Duties of their respective Offices, and he shall have Power to Grant Reprieves and Pardons for Offenses against the United White Nationalist States, except in Cases of Impeachment.

[2] The President shall have Power, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, to make Treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate, shall appoint Ambassadors, other public Ministers and Consuls, Judges of the supreme Court, and all other Officers of the United White Nationalist States, whose Appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by Law: but the Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in the Heads of Departments.

[3] The President shall have Power to fill up all Vacancies that may happen during the Recess of the Senate, by granting Commissions which shall expire at the End of their next Session.

Section 3.

The President shall from time to time give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their Consideration such Measures as the President shall judge necessary and expedient; the President may, on extraordinary Occasions, convene both Houses, or either of them, and in Case of Disagreement between them, with Respect to the Time of Adjournment, the President may adjourn them to such Time as he shall think proper; the President shall receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers; the President shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and shall Commission all the Officers of the United White Nationalist States.

Section 4.

The President, Vice President, and all civil Officers of the United White Nationalist States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanours.

Section 5.

Generic Terminology

The following generic terminology definitions were developed for -

- ❖ Identifying the fundamental purpose of these writings.
- ❖ Identifying the scientific terminology specific to the foundation of White Nationalism.
- ❖ Establish the scientific reasons for advocating of White Nationalism.

The results of this process are the following generic terminology definitions -

- A chromosome involved in the determination of the sex of offspring produced via sexual reproduction.
- A human being will receive one allosome from each of their parents.

Aryan -

- A Caucasian person of non-Jewish descent speaking an Indo-European language during the 2nd millennium BC; or a descendant thereof.
- "Aryans, or Indo-Europeans (Caucasians) created the great Indian, or Hindu civilization. Aryans swept over the Himalayas to the Indian sub-continent and conquered the aboriginal people. The original term India was coined by the Aryan invaders from their Sanskrit word Sindu, for the river now called the Indus. Sanskrit is perhaps the oldest of the Indo-European languages, having a common origin to all the modern languages of Europe. The word Aryan has an etymological origin in the word Arya from Sanskrit, meaning noble. The word also has been associated with gold, the noble metal and denoted the golden skinned invaders (as compared to the brown skinned aboriginals) from the West. Composed in about 1500 B.C., the Hindu religious texts of the Rig Veta tell the story of the long struggles between the Aryans and the aboriginal people of the Indian subcontinent. Sixteen Aryan states were partitioned by the sixth century A.D., and Brahmanism became the chief religion of India. The conquering race initiated a caste system to preserve their status and their racial identity. The Hindu word for caste is Varna, which directly translated into English, means color. Today the word is usually associated with occupation or trade; but that is because occupations evolved based on skin color and ethnicity. The palest skinned were called the Brahmin. These were the warrior-priest class, the top of the social ladder. The Untouchables (or Pariahs) were the racially mixed in the bottom caste." - Definition from the book My Awakening (P. 517, 518) written by Dr. David Ernst Duke.

Primary Racial Definitions

The following Primary Racial Definitions were developed by -

- ❖ Identifying that the primary emphasis for the definition of a White person or a non-White person relates strictly to ancestral origin only.
- ❖ Understanding that the cultural, religious, political and sexual practices of a human being does not change and/or affect the genetics of that same human being.

The results of this process are the following Primary Racial Definitions -

Notes on Haplogroups -

1. All Haplogroups mutate every second generation.
2. The Haplogroups that remained on the land spaces of Europe and only experienced localized movements within or up to the grey outskirt border lands of Europe between 1000/430000 BC are the mutated Haplogroups found in modern humans of wholly European descent.

White Person -

- A human being of solely native European ancestry (No Jewish/Semitic ancestry is acceptable).
- A human being who, if they have non-European antecedents, are consistent of a physical and genetic makeup within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry. (See notes).
- The child of two White parents.

Notes on the definition of a White Person -

1. The current approximation for the definition of 'European ancestry' is the continuous genetic cline that stretches from the east of Ireland through the areas north of the Mediterranean Sea until west of the Ural Mountains.
2. The regions of Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, India, Iran, Israel, Kazakhstan, Mongolia, 'The Levant', Turkey and beyond, are not European homelands, and have never been European homelands.
3. The mutations of human Y-chromosome DNA haplogroups that have occurred on the land spaces of Europe are of European origin.

4. No ancient DNA has been found in northern Europe predating 20000 years due to the extensive ice cover of the Last Glacial Maximum (LGM).
5. The contentious question of how much non-European antecedents are acceptable is not currently solvable by using a formula. There have been numerous migrations and mutations of various Haplogroups both into and out of the land spaces of Europe since the Last Glacial Maximum (LGM) began to recede approximately 10000 BC.
6. Human Y-chromosome DNA Haplogroup migrations from non-European land spaces into the land spaces of Europe began from around 5000 BC. These non-European migrations include Haplogroup J1 and Haplogroup J2. The remains of some individuals found to have Y-chromosome DNA antecedents of Haplogroup J1 and Haplogroup J2 have been found among a small number of the archaeological sites of Vikings. These finds do not prove or conclude that those persons were Vikings or of European ancestry in any way. It is more probable that those individuals were used by the Vikings and other peoples of solely European descent, to serve as slaves, or concubines, or tradable commodities, or warfare cannon fodder. Essentially, those individuals found to have Y-chromosome DNA antecedents of Haplogroup J1 and Haplogroup J2 were of non-European origin, and thus those individuals were not and are not white people.
7. If a human being thought to be solely of native European ancestry with the physical makeup within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry partakes in a DNA test that results in traces of non-European antecedents being identified, the person being tested must be consistent of a physical and genetic makeup within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry to be considered a White person. All decisions under these circumstances would be considered on a case-by-case basis. The final decision on whether the person is a White person or a non-White person is to be decided by the White Nationalist Government issuing the White Nationalist Citizenship.
8. Any future mutations of Human Y-chromosome DNA Haplogroups of solely native European origin that occur on non-European land spaces are still considered to be of wholly European descent. For example, I am Australian because of my birthplace being in Australia, but I am of solely native European ancestry; all my ancestry is found in the highlands of Scotland (Haplogroup R1a1a (R-M17)). All my descendants will be of wholly European descent provided that no miscegenation occurs. If miscegenation occurs between one of my descendants and a non-white person, then their offspring will be classified as non-White.

9. The current known Human Y-chromosome DNA haplogroups with mutation origins on the land spaces of Europe that are consistent with the physical and genetic makeup found within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry resembling Mesolithic White Europeans between 1000 and 38000 BC, are as follows: -

    - I (I-M170) - 29000/33000 BC - Eastern Europe.
    - I1 (I-M253) - 1700/4900 BC - Northern Europe.
    - I2 (I-M438/P215/S31) - 26000/31000 BC - Eastern Europe.
    - I2a (I-P37.2) - 5000/6000 BC - Eastern Europe.
    - I2a2 (I-P216) - 11000/19000 BC - Northwest Europe.
    - I2b - (I-L416) - 17000/24000 BC - Eastern Europe.
    - I2c (I-L596) - 19000 BC - Central Europe.
    - R1 (R-M173) - 23000/24000 - Siberia/Northwest Eurasia.
    - R1a (R-M420) - 20000/23000 BC - South Russia/Southeast Europe.
    - R1a2 (YP4141) - 19000/20000 BC - South Russia/Southeast Europe.
    - R1a2a (YP4141) - 19000/20000 BC - Britain/Ireland.
    - R1a1 (R-M49) - 19000/20000 BC - South Russia/Southeast Europe.
    - R1a1a (R-M17) - 19000/20000 BC - Northeast Europe.
    - R1a1b (R-YP1272) - 19000/20000 BC - Northeast Europe.
    - R1a1a1 (R-M417) - 18000/19000 BC - Eastern Europe.
    - R1a1a1b1 (R-Z282) - 3000/4000 BC - Europe.
    - R1b (R-M343) - 24000/25000 BC - Western Europe.
    - R1b (R-M343) - 20000/25000 BC - Southwest Europe.
    - R1b1 (R-L278) - 23000/24000 BC - Southwest Europe.
    - R1b1a (R-L754) - 12000/20000 BC - Southern Europe.
    - R1b1a1 (R-L389) - 12000/23000 BC - Southern Europe.
    - R1b1a1a (R-P297) - 10000/20000 BC - Central Europe.
    - R1b1a1a2 (R-M269) - 3000/4000 BC - Southern Europe.
    - R1b1a2 (R-V88) - 12000/23000 BC - Southern Europe.

    Notes on Y-chromosome DNA haplogroups -

    - More Y-chromosome DNA haplogroups with mutation origins on the land spaces of Europe which are consistent with the physical and genetic makeup found within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry, may be added at later dates.

- Surnames and namesakes do not determine genetic heritage. The presence of a non-European surname, including Ashkenazi Jewish surnames among an individual's ancestors does not necessarily indicate that their lineage is not entirely of European descent. An ancestor may have adopted a non-European surname, experienced a misspelling of their surname, legally changed their surname for various reasons, or simply used a different name. Any of these scenarios would not alter the fact that the ancestor could have been of wholly native European ancestry. For instance, an ancestor may have been the offspring of two white parents who divorced, or the child of two white parents where one parent passed away, or the product of a relationship between two white parents that occurred outside of marriage. Following separation, the custodial parent may have remarried an individual with a non-European surname, experienced a misspelling of their surname, legally changed their surname, or opted to use an alternative surname. Regardless of these circumstances, the ancestor would still be genetically classified as a White person. Furthermore, if this same White ancestor subsequently procreated with another individual of entirely native European descent, and if no instances of miscegenation occurred among any of their descendants thereafter, all offspring would retain a lineage of wholly native European descent, thereby classifying each descendant as a White person.

10. The current known Human Mitochondrial DNA haplogroups with mutation origins on the land spaces of Europe that are consistent with the physical and genetic makeup found within the range typical of people of solely native European ancestry resembling Mesolithic White Europeans between 1000 and 38000 BC, are as follows: -

    - Proto-Aurignacian - 41000/45000 BC - Eastern Europe = N, R.
    - Aurignacian Culture - 26000/41000 BC - Ice-free Europe = M, U, U2, U6.

- More Mitochondrial DNA haplogroups found on the land spaces of Europe may be added at later dates.

Non-White Person -

- A human being that is not of solely native European ancestry.
- The child of two non-White parents.
- The child of one non-White parent and one White parent.

Notes on the definition of a Non-White Person -

1. Mutations of human Y-chromosome DNA haplogroups that have not occurred on the land spaces of Europe are not of European origin.
2. The current approximate dates and locations for the mutation of primary human DNA haplogroups considered to be non-white migrant groups into Europe from 7000 BC, are as follows: -
    - J1 (J-M267) - 15000/22000 BC - East Africa/Western Asia.

White Nationalist Homeland Principles

The following White Nationalist Homeland principles were developed by -

- ❖ Identifying and understanding the fundamental purpose of White Nationalism.
- ❖ Assessing the implementation of White Nationalist governance over a living space inhabited by White Nationalists.
- ❖ Assessing the most probable outcome of White Nationalist governance after the implementation of White Nationalism into living spaces inhabited by only White Nationalists.
- ❖ Establishing the acceptable conductivity of any White Nationalist government of any White Nationalist Homeland.

The results of this process were the formulation of the following White Nationalist Homeland Principles for White Nationalist governance -

White Nationalist Homeland -

- A living space controlled by White Nationalists that is dedicated to the habitation of only White Nationalists indefinitely.
- A White Nationalist Homeland may be of any size, or configuration, and consist of a single parcel of real estate, to an entire planet.
- All White Nationalist Homelands may be amalgamated into larger White Nationalist Homelands as required; or separated into smaller White Nationalist Homelands, as required.
- The amalgamation of any White Nationalist Homelands may only take place by mutual consent.
- All amalgamated White Nationalist Homelands retain the unilateral "Right of Secession" from any White Nationalist Homeland, or part of a White Nationalist Homeland, from the larger entity, without requiring the consent of the larger White Nationalist Homeland.

Acceptable White Nationalist Homeland Citizenship Criteria

The following White Nationalist Homeland Citizenship Criteria were developed by -

- ❖ Identifying the fundamental purpose of White Nationalism.
- ❖ Assessing the primary citizenship Criteria needed to maintain White Nationalism within a White Nationalist Homeland.
- ❖ Assessing the most probable outcome of White Nationalists with individual identifiable lifestyles being incorporated into a White Nationalist Homeland inhabited by White Nationalists with individual identifiable lifestyles.
- ❖ Maintaining law and order for all White Nationalists with individual lifestyles that are residing within a White Nationalist Homeland.
- ❖ Ensuring freedom from discrimination, persecution, or oppression for all White Nationalists with individual lifestyles that are residing within a White Nationalist Homeland.
- ❖ Only law-abiding White Nationalists need apply.
- ❖ Applicants with prior criminal records are to be judged case by case.
- ❖ Any White person applying that had been found guilty and convicted of advocating and/or carrying out violent activity or illegal sexual activity would be rejected without right of appeal or re-application, and all other white people applying that had been found guilty and convicted of advocating and/or carrying out illegal activity would be considered case by case.

The results of this process identified the five aspects of each human being that must be considered for a White Nationalist citizenship to be granted for inclusion into a White Nationalist Homeland as follows -

1) Racial heritage.

- A person of wholly European ancestry can be born in countries that are not geographically a White Nationalist Homeland. If both parents are of wholly European ancestry only (non-Jewish), the location of birth does not change the genetics of the person. A person of wholly European ancestry only (non-Jewish) that is born anywhere in the world (or universe for that matter) is still a white person.
